

ALEX GOUDIE

YEAR OF CALL: 2000

Alex joined Chambers in April 2014, prior to joining chambers from another leading London set Alex worked for Lovells, a large international law firm.

EXPERTISE

Alex undertakes work in all areas of criminal law. He has acted as Leading Junior Counsel in substantial fraud cases and as led Junior Counsel in a number of multi-handed cases involving serious immigration offences and money laundering. Alex is also well experienced in the area of confiscation proceedings.

In addition to general crime Alex also undertakes regulatory work. He has been instructed to prosecute on behalf of Local Authorities in respect of a number of areas including enforcement proceedings and breaches of Health and Safety legislation in both the Magistrates' and the Crown Court.

Aside from Criminal Law Alex also has experience in relation to civil actions against the police and prison adjudications.

Alex has run seminars and lectured to both solicitors and Local Authorities on the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 and disclosure.

DEFENCE CASES

R v B - Rape and attempted rape of ex-partner.

R v C & Others - Seven-handed conspiracy to import 28 kg of cocaine.

R v A & Others - Six-handed violent disorder and Section 18 GBH.

R v A & Others - Six-handed Section 18 GBH.

R v N & Others - Four-handed violent disorder and burglary.

R v F & Others - Seven-handed conspiracy to commit cash-in transit robberies. Led by Queen's Counsel for the first Defendant.

R v W - Statutory rape.

R v E - Attempted murder.

R v A & Others - Junior Counsel in multi-handed money laundering allegation.

R v O & Others - Ten-handed conspiracy to rob. Although acquitted of the conspiracy the defendant was convicted of a substantive allegation of attempted robbery. The sentences imposed were subsequently subject to an Attorney-General's Reference.

R v W & Others - Led Junior Counsel in four-handed conspiracy to defraud the Secretary of State for the Home Office.

R v G & Others - Led Junior Counsel for the first defendant in a six-handed conspiracy to evade immigration laws.

fifteen
NEW BRIDGE ST.

15 New Bridge Street, London, EC4V 6AU
www.15nbs.com

PROSECUTION CASES

R v E & Others - Successful prosecution appeal against a terminatory ruling. Instructed as leading Junior in the Court of Appeal and in the forthcoming re-trial.

R v N & Others - Eight-handed conspiracy to defraud. Instructed as leading Junior in fraud perpetrated against local authority. Confiscation proceedings are ongoing.

R v R & G - Fly-tipping prosecution in the Crown Court and appeared for the Respondent successfully in the Court of Appeal.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Criminal Bar Association (England and Wales)
Member South Eastern Circuit

QUALIFICATIONS

LLB (Hons.) Law
Direct access qualified

fifteen
NEW BRIDGE ST.

15 New Bridge Street, London, EC4V 6AU
www.15nbs.com