

BETH CROCKER

YEAR OF CALL: 2006

‘Beth is an exceptionally able advocate. Her knowledge of the law is unparalleled. Her cross-examination is focused and effective which comes from the high level of preparation she does and her detailed knowledge of the case papers. Her closing speeches are persuasive and she engages a jury in a wonderful way.’ (Legal 500 2025)

Beth Crocker is building a reputation as a talented junior with a broad practice that includes murder, drugs, and serious sexual offences cases (Legal 500 – 2024)

“Beth is an extremely talented junior. She is a master tactician who knows her cases inside out and her written work is of the highest quality. She is also extremely persuasive in her submissions to judges and fantastic in cross-examination.” (Legal 500 – 2023)

Beth is a formidable advocate with a practice focused on serious and complex criminal defence. Her experience spans the full range of offences, and she is regularly instructed in cases alongside silks and leading juniors.

In court, she is known for her engaging style with juries and persuasive closing arguments, which are supported by her thorough case preparation and tactical insight. Beth is highly experienced in handling complex, multi-party cases, including those with significant amounts of material (used and unused).

Her exceptional ability to build strong relationships with lay clients, particularly young or vulnerable defendants, makes her a sought-after advocate for both legal aid and private instructions.
